

Parents as Teachers™

Speakers Bureau

Tammy Craig, C.P.A.

Chief Financial Officer

With more than 20 years of business and charitable volunteer experience, Tammy Craig brings a diversified base of knowledge to Parents as Teachers. In her role as Chief Financial Officer, Craig oversees all organizational financial and human resource activities for the national office. Specifically, she ensures the integrity of the financial data, develops financial policies to provide the framework for financial planning and decision making, and works directly with the COO and senior management to ensure prudent management of Parents as Teachers financial resources.

Prior to coming to Parents as Teachers, Craig served for nine years as business manager for FlightSafety International, Inc., managing the business, IT, and human resources departments. Additionally, Craig served as senior accountant and financial planner for McDonnell Douglas Corporation.

Craig has been a part of the Parents as Teachers team since 2007. She is a board member and part of the Executive Committee and the Program Committee for The Deaconess Foundation. She served as the former chairman, vice-chairman, treasurer, secretary and board member for more than 13 years at the St. John's Home and Community Care. She is also a former board member for Habitat for Humanity International.

Craig holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from Southern Illinois University where she graduated with high honors. She is an advisory council member for Collinsville area food pantry, a volunteer for the Missouri Special Olympics, and is the volunteer treasurer for the Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts of America.

Our Vision: All children will learn, grow and develop to realize their full potential.

2228 Ball Drive Saint Louis, Missouri 63146 p 314.432.4330 www.ParentsAsTeachers.org speakersbureau@ParentsAsTeachers.org